

NEWSLETTER - 14th May 2010

Non uniform day

Friday 21st May 2010 will be a non uniform day for all of the children. In support of this event we would like to request a voluntary donation of £1 to raise money to help a local young person (Amandeep Sehmi) who is currently involved in a huge charity project called Challenge Worldwide - Training for Life. In June she will be going to Africa to take part in various projects including providing medical services in remote areas, conserving water in the drought stricken area of Lake Natron, helping to install solar panels to provide energy at Longolwe Primary School, and supporting a feeding programme for St Lazarus School in the Kibera Slums of Nairobi. Amandeep will be in school on Thursday to talk about these projects to the children. Thank you for your support.

Fashion Show

After the success of last year's event, the PTA is holding another Smarty's fashion show on Tuesday 22nd June at 6.30pm. Please keep that date free in your diary to come along and enjoy the occasion. If you are free to help set up the event and support the models in getting dressed then please complete the reply slip below.

Parent's questionnaire

Thank you to the parents who have sent back their questionnaire already. Another copy has been attached for you with this newsletter. Please spend a few minutes completing one and sharing your views - any feedback we receive is used to support our school improvement planning.

Fun for Fathers

After the success of the two previous evenings and in response to the evaluations from parents, we are holding another Fun for Fathers evening. This one will be focussing on the Harry and a Bucketful of Dinosaur stories and is planned for Monday 17th May from 5-7pm. All Fathers, grandfathers and uncles are warmly invited to attend and Mums and grandmas won't be turned away! Please drop into the school hall anytime between 5 and 7pm. There will be many fun activities to enjoy - it promises to be a great evening for everyone.

Walk to School Week

Next week is walk to school week in Coventry. The focus of this year's event is reducing the carbon footprint. The children will be discussing this in school and joining with their class to collect footprint stickers if they walk to school. If you do have to travel by bus or car then perhaps you could park a few streets away and walk to last part of the journey!

Brandon Marsh Nature Centre

Brandon Marsh have circulated information regarding their half term and summer holiday events. They are holding a range of 'wild events for children' including nature fairies, kite making and a family bat and moth bonanza! To find out more information please contact Nicole Armitage on 024 7630 2912 or visit their website on www.warwickshire-wildlife-trust.org.uk
