

As part of anti-bullying week, which this year was focusing on verbal bullying, a competition was run to see who could come up with the most inspirational poster in KS1 and in KS2 a poem on the theme. The standard of all entries was very high, which made it a challenge to choose the final winners.

The proud winners.