

Allesley Hall Primary School children take part in historic radio broadcast.

Members of the Performing Arts Service visited the school to give us hands on experience of the music and dance that kept the nation's spirits up during the dark years of World War II.

We learnt to sing old favourites such as, 'Run Rabbit Run' and 'Who do you Think you are Kidding ...' as well as learning to dance the jitterbug to some big band music.

